The Dress Code Made Simple

All body parts within the red zone must be covered. No cleavage or undergarments should be visible. Garments that are so tight as to make it obvious what you look like without them must be covered with a looser garment. Footwear is required.